1,001 Days in the Bleachers: A Quarter Century of Chicago Sports

Loyal sports fans follow their teams through peaks and valleys, but in no other city have fans experienced the highs and lows of Chicagoans in the past generation. This collection of Ted Cox's greatest hits writing "The Sports Section" for the Chicago Reader from 1983 to 2008 constitutes an intimate history of Chicago teams during these years. From the triumphs—the six titles won by the Bulls, the Super Bowl champion 1985 Bears, and the White Sox winning the World Series in 2005—to the regularly occurring collapses of the Cubs, Cox puts his audience on the scene. He evokes the fan's experience with a level of vivid detail now nearly extinct from sports journalism. Co

What others say about this ebook:

Review 1:

A great read for all lovers of sports and good writing, whether you are from Chicago or not. Huge bonus - the cover illustration by Tony Fitzpatrick.

Review 2:

Savoring this by reading one chapter at a time. Nice not to have six "Continued On"s as much (all?) of this did in its original publication in the Chicago Reader. I still have more than half of it left and hope it never ends.
